Video Methods

Social Science Research in Motion

Edited by Charlotte Bates, Goldsmiths, University of London

Series: Routledge Advances in Research Methods

This interdisciplinary collection provides a set of innovative and inventive approaches to the use of video as a research method. Building on the development of visual methods across the social sciences, it highlights a range of possibilities for making and working with video data, including video diaries, video go-alongs, time-lapse video, mobile devices, multi-angle video recording, video ethnography, and ethnographic documentary.
