

SPEAK AS YOU FIND

Your warmth in unfamiliar places always keeps me smiling

London is BIG. Sometimes I was lost

It feels like a village to me

Best place in the world to live, grow up in

Please London Believe me! – try and accommodate some oppressed people that ran to you for help – they need rest of mind – thanks.

I think East End is really the centre of London

Every time I pass this road on the bus or walking I feel the same butterflies and smile

From the chaos of Brick Lane to the romance of Café du Marche via the labyrinth of Fabric, you have it all

Everyday you can see completely new things

NO PLACE CAN BE DESCRIBED THROUGH A SINGLE STORY

Come and explore some of the many stories that describe life in Tower Hamlets. Perspectives vary because of our life experiences, our ages and stages, and it is out of this cacophony that Magic Me has created the site specific performance Speak as you Find.

Moving through the building in this immersive production the audience will encounter connections and disharmony, whispers and shouts, all deeply rooted in the lived experience of our community performers.
