

The future
materials possess
no form or function. They are uniformly unmanifest (as
are all futures).
We speculate with
the mind's
eye, looking
simultaneously
fore and aft.
There are no
stakes in
speculation,
only shots in
the dark, wild
goose chases and
blind hope.
