A background image of a soccer game seen through a goal net. The net's white mesh is prominent in the foreground, creating a grid-like pattern over the scene. In the background, several players in blue and white uniforms are visible on a green field. A bright light source, possibly the sun, creates a strong glare in the lower center of the image.

‘This documentary reminds us that we are a normal, hard-working British community. We have fears, hopes, anxieties just like everyone else. We also drink Costa Coffee, watch Netflix and follow our football team passionately’ (Hoque quoted in Cox, 2020)

I conclude the documentary with the words: ‘My hope and aspiration is that they will continue to come – our challenge as parents is how we instil that connection with the motherland – where it began for all of us’.
